8th ILBJH SCIENTIFIC CONGRESS

Uniting Expertise, Advancing Rheumatology

PROGRAM

DECEMBER 04-06, 2025
MÖVENPICK BAGHDAD - IRAQ

WELCOME LETTER

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to invite you to the upcoming 8th ILBJH Scientific congress, taking place in Baghdad, Iraq, from December 4-6, 2025

This prestigious event will gather leading rheumatologists from around the country to share cutting-edge research, clinical advancements, and innovative treatment approaches in rheumatology.

The congress will feature keynote presentations, interactive workshops, and engaging symposia designed to enhance your clinical practice and expand your professional network. This is an unparalleled opportunity to collaborate with experts, exchange ideas, and stay abreast of the latest developments in the field.

Baghdad, a city with a rich history and vibrant culture, offers a unique backdrop for this event. We encourage you to join us and experience the hospitality and heritage of this remarkable city.

Your participation is crucial to the success of this congress, and we are confident that your contributions will enrich the discussions and outcomes.

Best regards,

Nizar Abduleef, MD

President of the ILBJH
